
Billboard4Christ®
THE STATEMENT DEVOTIONAL
30 DAYS OF FAITH IN ACTION
WE ARE THE BILLBOARDS.
JESUS IS THE MESSAGE.
WITH LOVE,
Tamika Adgerson

WELCOME

You are more than what you wear. Your words, decisions, compassion, and character tell a story. The Statement Devotional is an invitation to make that story a visible reflection of Jesus Christ.

For the next 30 days, we will return to the foundation of Proverbs 3:5–6: trust the Lord wholeheartedly, resist the demand to understand everything, acknowledge Him in your ways, and allow Him to direct your path.

Each day includes a scripture reference, a brief reflection, one practical step, and a closing prayer. This is a reading devotional, not a workbook. Read at your own pace and return to the passages in your preferred Bible translation.

OUR DECLARATION

WE ARE THE BILLBOARDS.
JESUS IS THE MESSAGE.

DAY

01

TRUST WITH ALL YOUR HEART

TRUST WITH ALL YOUR HEART

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Proverbs 3:5–6

You do not have to figure everything out.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

There will be seasons when the next step is unclear. Plans change, doors close, and answers take longer than expected. Trust is not pretending uncertainty is easy. It is choosing to believe that God is faithful even when the full picture is hidden.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Today, release one outcome you have been trying to control. Take the next faithful step without demanding to see the entire staircase.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Father, teach me to trust Your wisdom above my need for certainty. Let my decisions reflect confidence in You.

DAY

02

LET GO OF THE BLUEPRINT

LET GO OF THE BLUEPRINT

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Proverbs 3:5

God can guide what you are willing to surrender.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

We often bring God a finished plan and ask Him to approve it. But surrender means making room for a better direction. Your goals matter, yet they do not have to become your master. A surrendered life remains open to correction, delay, and unexpected opportunity.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Name one plan you are holding too tightly. Ask what obedience looks like today.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Lord, loosen my grip on my plans. Give me courage to follow You when the route changes.

DAY

03

FAITH IN THE ORDINARY

FAITH IN THE ORDINARY

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Colossians 3:17

The everyday moments are part of your witness.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Faith is not reserved for a church service or a difficult season. It shows up in how you answer a message, honor a promise, and treat someone who cannot repay you. Your daily choices tell a story about what you believe. Small acts of integrity can make that story clear.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Choose one ordinary task and do it with unusual care and kindness.

TODAY'S PRAYER

God, make my everyday life an honest reflection of Your love.

DAY

04

A DIFFERENT KIND OF CONFIDENCE

A DIFFERENT KIND OF CONFIDENCE

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Psalm 37:5

Confidence grows when your foundation is secure.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

The world often measures confidence by certainty, applause, or control. Faith offers another foundation: you can move forward without having every answer because your worth does not depend on perfect outcomes. Confidence in God does not make you careless; it makes you steady.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Approach one intimidating responsibility with preparation and prayer.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Father, replace anxious striving with quiet courage and faithful action.

DAY

05

WHEN THE DOOR CLOSES

WHEN THE DOOR CLOSES

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Isaiah 43:19

A closed door is not the end of your story.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Disappointment can make a detour feel like defeat. Yet an unanswered request or a changed opportunity does not mean God has stopped working. Grieve what you hoped for, then remain available to what comes next. Faith can hold both honest disappointment and real expectation.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Write down one disappointment and one possibility you may have overlooked.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Lord, meet me in disappointment and help me recognize new beginnings.

DAY

06

WALK
BEFORE YOU SEE

WALK BEFORE YOU SEE

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

2 Corinthians 5:7

Obedience sometimes comes before clarity.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Waiting for perfect conditions can become another way to avoid movement. Wisdom requires thought and counsel, but faith also requires a step. You do not need to rush or ignore reality. You can move thoughtfully with the light you have today.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Take one small, responsible step toward something you have delayed.

TODAY'S PRAYER

God, help me move with wisdom, not fear, and trust You with what I cannot see.

DAY

07

YOUR LIFE SPEAKS

YOUR LIFE SPEAKS

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Matthew 5:16

Your conduct may be the message someone remembers.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

People may forget what you say about faith but remember how you made them feel. Compassion, honesty, and humility give your witness substance. Being a billboard for Christ is not about appearing flawless. It is about making His character visible in imperfect human moments.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Show practical kindness to someone without announcing it.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Jesus, let my life point to You rather than to my image.

DAY

08

PEACE WITHOUT ANSWERS

PEACE WITHOUT ANSWERS

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Philippians 4:6–7

Peace does not require a solved problem.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Some questions remain open longer than we would like. Prayer gives us a place to bring the pressure instead of carrying it alone. Peace is not denial of a challenge. It is the steadiness that can grow when we repeatedly place our concerns before God.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Pause for five minutes and pray specifically about one unresolved concern.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Father, guard my mind and help me meet uncertainty with Your peace.

DAY

09

THE COURAGE TO BE HONEST

THE COURAGE TO BE HONEST

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Psalm 139:23–24

Growth begins where pretending ends.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

It is tempting to protect an image of strength while hiding what needs attention. God is not impressed by performance. Honest self-examination creates space for healing, accountability, and change. A credible witness is willing to admit mistakes and make things right.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Acknowledge one area where you need to grow; take one corrective action.

TODAY'S PRAYER

God, search my heart and give me humility to change.

DAY

10

CHOOSE YOUR WORDS

CHOOSE YOUR WORDS

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Proverbs 18:21

Your words can make room for life.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

The way you speak to others can either deepen a burden or lighten it. Truth matters, but so do timing and tone. Words of encouragement are not empty when they are sincere and specific. A life that reflects Christ practices both honesty and gentleness.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Offer one sincere, specific word of encouragement today.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Lord, guide my tongue toward truth, kindness, and restraint.

DAY

11

INTEGRITY WHEN UNSEEN

INTEGRITY WHEN UNSEEN

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Luke 16:10

Character is built in private decisions.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Public faith becomes credible when private habits support it. The small decisions no one applauds are often the ones that shape trustworthiness. Integrity is not a single grand gesture; it is consistency over time, including when shortcuts would be easier.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Keep a promise or complete a responsibility that no one is checking.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Father, make me faithful in the small things.

DAY

12

STRENGTH TO WAIT

STRENGTH TO WAIT

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Isaiah 40:31

Waiting can be active faith.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Waiting does not always mean standing still. It may mean preparing, learning, resting, or refusing to force a result. Patience can protect us from decisions made only to escape discomfort. God can work in the process as well as the outcome.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Use a waiting season to prepare for what you have been praying about.

TODAY'S PRAYER

God, renew my strength and teach me patient preparation.

DAY

13

MAKE ROOM FOR GRACE

MAKE ROOM FOR GRACE

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Ephesians 4:32

Grace changes how we treat people.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

You will encounter people who are difficult to understand, and you will sometimes be difficult to understand too. Grace does not erase boundaries or excuse harm. It does remind us that kindness and forgiveness can coexist with wisdom.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Respond with compassion in one situation where irritation would be easier.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Jesus, help me extend grace without abandoning truth or healthy boundaries.

DAY

14

FAITH THAT SERVES

FAITH THAT SERVES

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Galatians 5:13

Love becomes visible through service.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

It is possible to speak passionately about faith while overlooking a nearby need. Service brings belief into reach of another person. Not every act must be dramatic. A ride, a meal, a listening ear, or a practical favor can become a meaningful expression of love.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Meet one practical need within your capacity today.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Lord, open my eyes to people I can serve with humility.

DAY

15

WHEN YOU FEEL BEHIND

WHEN YOU FEEL BEHIND

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Ecclesiastes 3:11

Your timeline is not your identity.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Comparison can make ordinary progress feel inadequate. But another person's pace is not the measure of your faithfulness. There is value in the season you are in, even if it looks different from what you imagined. Keep growing without treating your life as a race.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Replace one comparison with gratitude for your own progress.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Father, help me honor the season I am in.

DAY

16

A HEART THAT LISTENS

A HEART THAT LISTENS

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

James 1:19

Listening is an act of love.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Many conversations become contests over who will be heard. Listening slows us down enough to recognize the person in front of us. You can disagree without dismissing someone. A patient response often carries more influence than a quick argument.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

In your next conversation, listen fully before offering a response.

TODAY'S PRAYER

God, make me quick to listen and slow to react.

STAND FIRM, STAY GENTLE

DAY

17

STAND FIRM, STAY GENTLE

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

1 Peter 3:15

Conviction and kindness belong together.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Living your faith openly does not require harshness. You can know what you believe and still treat others with dignity. Gentleness is not weakness; it is strength under control. Let the way you communicate make room for honest questions and respectful conversations.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Practice explaining one belief with clarity and gentleness.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Lord, give me conviction without pride and courage without cruelty.

DAY

18

START AGAIN

START AGAIN

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Lamentations 3:22–23

Mercy gives you permission to begin again.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

A mistake can become a lesson without becoming your identity. Repentance means taking responsibility and turning toward a different path. God's mercy does not erase consequences, but it offers hope that growth remains possible. Today can be a meaningful new beginning.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Take one concrete step to repair, restart, or redirect.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Father, thank You for mercy. Help me begin again with humility.

DAY

19

FAITH UNDER PRESSURE

FAITH UNDER PRESSURE

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

James 1:2–4

Pressure can reveal what needs strengthening.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Difficult seasons can expose impatience, fear, and old habits. They can also invite perseverance. You do not have to celebrate pain or pretend it is easy. You can ask God for wisdom while learning how to respond with maturity and endurance.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Identify one healthy response you can practice under pressure.

TODAY'S PRAYER

God, grow perseverance in me without hardening my heart.

DAY

20

PRACTICE GRATITUDE

PRACTICE GRATITUDE

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

1 Thessalonians 5:18

Gratitude helps you notice what is still good.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Gratitude does not require calling every circumstance good. It asks us to recognize gifts even while life remains complicated. Thankfulness can interrupt the habit of seeing only what is missing. It helps us remember provision, relationships, and moments of unexpected grace.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Write down three specific things you are grateful for today.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Lord, open my eyes to Your goodness in ordinary moments.

DAY

21

BE FAITHFUL WITH WHAT YOU HAVE

BE FAITHFUL WITH WHAT YOU HAVE

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

1 Peter 4:10

What is in your hands matters.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

It is easy to postpone generosity or purpose until you have more money, time, or influence. Yet faithfulness begins with what is already available. Your skills, attention, and opportunities can bless others now. Stewardship asks for care, not comparison.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Use one ability or resource to help someone today.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Father, teach me to steward what You have entrusted to me.

DAY

22

LET WISDOM LEAD

LET WISDOM LEAD

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

James 1:5

Asking for wisdom is a sign of strength.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Faith does not mean avoiding questions, research, or counsel. Wise decisions often involve prayer, honest information, and patient reflection. Asking God for wisdom can make us more responsible, not less. Slow down long enough to consider both consequences and character.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Seek trustworthy counsel for one decision that needs clarity.

TODAY'S PRAYER

God, give me wisdom and a teachable spirit.

DAY

23

THE WITNESS OF REST

THE WITNESS OF REST

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Matthew 11:28

Rest can be an expression of trust.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Constant activity can make us feel indispensable. Yet our limits are real, and ignoring them does not make us more faithful. Rest reminds us that the world does not depend on our endless effort. Healthy rhythms create space to love and serve with renewed attention.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Protect a short period of meaningful rest today.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Jesus, help me release the need to prove my worth through exhaustion.

DAY

24

CHOOSE FORGIVENESS

CHOOSE FORGIVENESS

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Colossians 3:13

Forgiveness is a process, not a performance.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Resentment can keep an old injury present in every new day. Forgiveness may begin as a decision to stop feeding revenge. It does not require immediate reconciliation, restored access, or denial of what happened. With wisdom and support, healing can unfold over time.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Pray honestly about one hurt, without rushing your healing.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Lord, guide me toward freedom, wisdom, and healthy boundaries.

DAY

25

HOPE THAT HOLDS

HOPE THAT HOLDS

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Romans 15:13

Hope is more than a positive mood.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Hope rooted in God can remain when circumstances are uncertain. It does not ask you to ignore grief or manufacture enthusiasm. It offers a reason to keep taking faithful steps. When your emotions fluctuate, you can return to the promises and character of God.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Encourage someone with a realistic, hope-filled word.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Father, fill me with hope that endures difficult days.

DAY

26

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Mark 12:31

Love becomes credible when it reaches beyond convenience.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

It is easy to care about people who share our preferences. The invitation to love our neighbor reaches further. It asks us to notice dignity, need, and humanity in those around us. Love may look like patience, generosity, advocacy, or simply refusing contempt.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Extend thoughtful care to someone outside your usual circle.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Jesus, enlarge my compassion and guide my actions.

DAY

27

KEEP YOUR LIGHT ON

KEEP YOUR LIGHT ON

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Matthew 5:14–16

Consistency gives your witness staying power.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

One inspiring moment can encourage someone, but steady character builds trust. There will be days when faith feels ordinary and no one notices. Keep choosing integrity and compassion anyway. Light is useful because it continues to shine when the room is dark.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Repeat one small act of faithfulness you have been neglecting.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Lord, help me live with steady purpose, not just occasional enthusiasm.

DAY

28

FOLLOW THE NEXT RIGHT STEP

FOLLOW THE NEXT RIGHT STEP

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Psalm 119:105

Guidance often comes one step at a time.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

We may wish for a complete map, yet sometimes the light reaches only the next decision. That can be enough to begin. Pay attention to what is clear: love, truth, responsibility, and wisdom. A faithful next step can prepare you for the one after it.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Write down the next right step and give it a realistic deadline.

TODAY'S PRAYER

God, illuminate the step before me and give me courage to take it.

DAY

29

A LIFE THAT POINTS BEYOND ITSELF

A LIFE THAT POINTS BEYOND ITSELF

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

John 3:30

The goal is not attention; it is testimony.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

A billboard is designed to point people toward a message. In the same way, our lives can direct attention toward Christ through the way we love, serve, and lead. You do not need a platform to have influence. You need a willingness to live what you believe.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Ask whether your actions today point people toward compassion and truth.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Jesus, let my life make Your goodness easier to see.

DAY

30

KEEP WALKING IN TRUST

KEEP WALKING IN TRUST

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Proverbs 3:5–6

Trust is a daily decision, not a finish line.

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Thirty days cannot answer every question or remove every challenge. But daily attention can begin to shape a new rhythm. Trust God with your heart, seek His wisdom in your choices, and remain open to His direction. Your testimony continues beyond these pages.

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Choose one practice from this devotional to carry into the next month.

TODAY'S PRAYER

Father, direct my paths. Let my life continue to reflect Your love, truth, and faithfulness.

KEEP LIVING THE MESSAGE.

The devotional ends here. Your witness does not. Keep trusting God, walking in wisdom, and letting your life reflect the love of Christ.